225 No. Roberts

Helena, Montana 59601

EXPLANATION OF STYLE

Entries in the Index are arranged alphabetically under name, subject and author.

Titles of articles, books, newspapers, and names of steamboats appear in italics.

Source references include, in this order: volume number (in roman numerals), number of the issue within the volume (Winter 1, Spring 2, Summer 3, Autumn 4), and the page number or numbers. The small letter "n" indicates a footnote reference, the letters "ff" indicate further mention beyond the page given. The use of a hyphen between page numbers (1-10) indicates the subject is treated fully in those pages inclusively.

MAJOR CONTENTS—1967

JANUARY, 1967 — NUMBER ONE (WINTER)

	Page
A CATTLEMAN VIEWS INDIAN POLICY—1875..... edited, with introduction by Gene M. Gressley Thomas and William Sturgis, Wyoming stockmen, were articulate spokesmen for frontier beliefs concerning federal "mismanagement" and the "Indian problem."	2
YOUNG JOE DIXON IN THE FLATHEAD COUNTRY..... edited, with introduction by Jules Alexander Karlin Report of a trip into Western Montana, told graphically by a man who later was a Montana political "great."	12
THE GOOSE THAT SANG..... by Elizabeth Gunn, with Elizabeth Greenfield Delightful recollections of an early-day Helena resident, Fred W. Kuphal, who became an outstanding orchestral violinist.	20
INTERNATIONAL STORMS OVER THE SAN JUANS..... by Tom H. Inkster The complicated and colorful story of the War of the Pig; controversy over the Canadian-American boundary.	36
THE SHORT, INCREDIBLE LIFE OF JEDEDIAH SMITH..... by Peter J. Burns In tremendous deeds on the frontier, this God-fearing and resourceful man ranked near to Lewis & Clark.	44
THE LONE DEATH OF LONG GEORGE FRANCIS..... by Elizabeth Cheney A poignant and tragic story of Montana's Hi-Line, adding to the record of a legendary figure.	56

APRIL, 1967 — NUMBER TWO (SPRING)

	Page
GEORGE CROOK: THE GRAY FOX..... by Henry P. Walker Tale of a prudent Indian fighter, his Arizona successes and his less-than-successful Montana operations.	2
THE MYTH OF CONFEDERATE SENTIMENT IN MONTANA..... by James L. Thane, Jr. Another contribution in a series of an oft-debated topic concerning early government in the Treasure State.	14
THE GREAT-HEARTED HUTTONS OF THE COEUR D'ALENES..... by Grace Roffey Pratt They came with nothing to an Idaho mining camp and blossomed into wealth—used to benefit humanity.	20
FINANCIAL FRUSTRATIONS IN TERRITORIAL MONTANA..... by Carl J. White How an international banker who invested in the West was outsmarted with unbelievable finesse.	34
LEWIS, LISA AND THE TANTALIZING SANTA FE TRADE..... by Richard H. Dillon Two men known for their operations in the Northwest were drawn unsuccessfully to the southwest.	47
CUSTER RIDES AGAIN..... by Dorothy M. Johnson Indians and whites unite for re-enactment of the famous battle. Told with verve and humor.	53

JULY, 1967 — NUMBER THREE (SUMMER)

	Page
THE LADY FROM MONTANA..... by John C. Board Montana's congresswoman, Jeannette Rankin, was first in the nation. Twice she voted her convictions against war under extreme pressures.	2
NEUROSURGERY ON THE FRONTIER..... by John R. Green, M.D. An unusual historical aspect of medicine at an Arizona Army post; probably the first surgery of its kind in the frontier West.	18
THE ROADS OF YELLOWSTONE: 1870-1915..... by Bob R. O'Brien From the days of private construction, through wagon transportation and stagecoaches; pioneer engineers planned well and with remarkable foresight.	30
MR. LEIGH AND HIS STUDIO..... by Dean Krakel William Robinson Leigh, great Western artist, his life portrayed, with added panels of his works reproduced.	40
D. J. "KID" O'MALLEY . . . MONTANA'S COWBOY POET..... by John I. White The story of a cowboy, but a different sort of cowboy; his verses and songs were heard from the Powder River to New York City.	60
MONTANA MEMOIRS OF AN UNCOMMON MAN..... by George M. Smith He was miner, engineer, inventor, entertainer and artist. Humorous and entertaining account of life in Montana 60 years ago.	74

OCTOBER, 1967 — NUMBER FOUR (AUTUMN)

	Page
JERRY POTTS: PLAINSMAN..... by Hugh A. Dempsey A scout and frontiersman along the Whoop-up Trail. His knowledge and judgment served two nations.	2
WILLIS VAN DEVANTER AND THE JOHNSON COUNTY WAR..... by Lewis L. Gould A new page in history of a conflict; Van Devanter, lawyer for and defender of the "invaders," later served on Wyoming's Supreme Court.	18
FOOTLIGHTS AND FIRE ENGINES..... by John N. and Bernice DeHaas Through vicissitudes and delays, Bozeman finally got its opera house; a study in drama and architecture.	28
FORT LOGAN AND THE URBAN FRONTIER..... by Thomas E. Twichel; edited by Thomas A. Clinch Another socially significant and economic center on the frontier; published on the Centennial of Meagher County, its location.	44
CONFEDERATE BACKWASH IN MONTANA TERRITORY..... by Stanley R. Davison and Dale Tash Two noted Montana students of the period present an opposing view to an article on this topic published earlier in the magazine year.	50
OUTLAW WITH A HALO..... by Albert Hilliard-Hughes An expert in the field of motion pictures takes a look at the legendary Jesse James and his gang—and how their life stories were altered on the screen.	60
